Finding Our Way

PROLOGUE

WE CANNOT CONTROL THE WINDS . . .
BUT WE CAN DIRECT THE SAILS.

A theme, as always, is the catalyst of any yearbook. Realizing this, we put forth our best effort to create a theme which would apply to every student at Honaker High School.

Our thinking was pointed in a particular direction, however. We sought to find a way for our theme to apply to eighth grade students as well as seniors. Throughout our high school years, we are constantly given new directions and paths to follow. As underclassmen we were always Finding Our Way maturing both physically and mentally to meet the requirements set for us. As seniors, we have found our way through high school, to doors opening to the responsibilities of adulthood with new directions and new beginnings. We have worked, we have learned, we have matured — but most of all — we have enjoyed Finding Our Way!

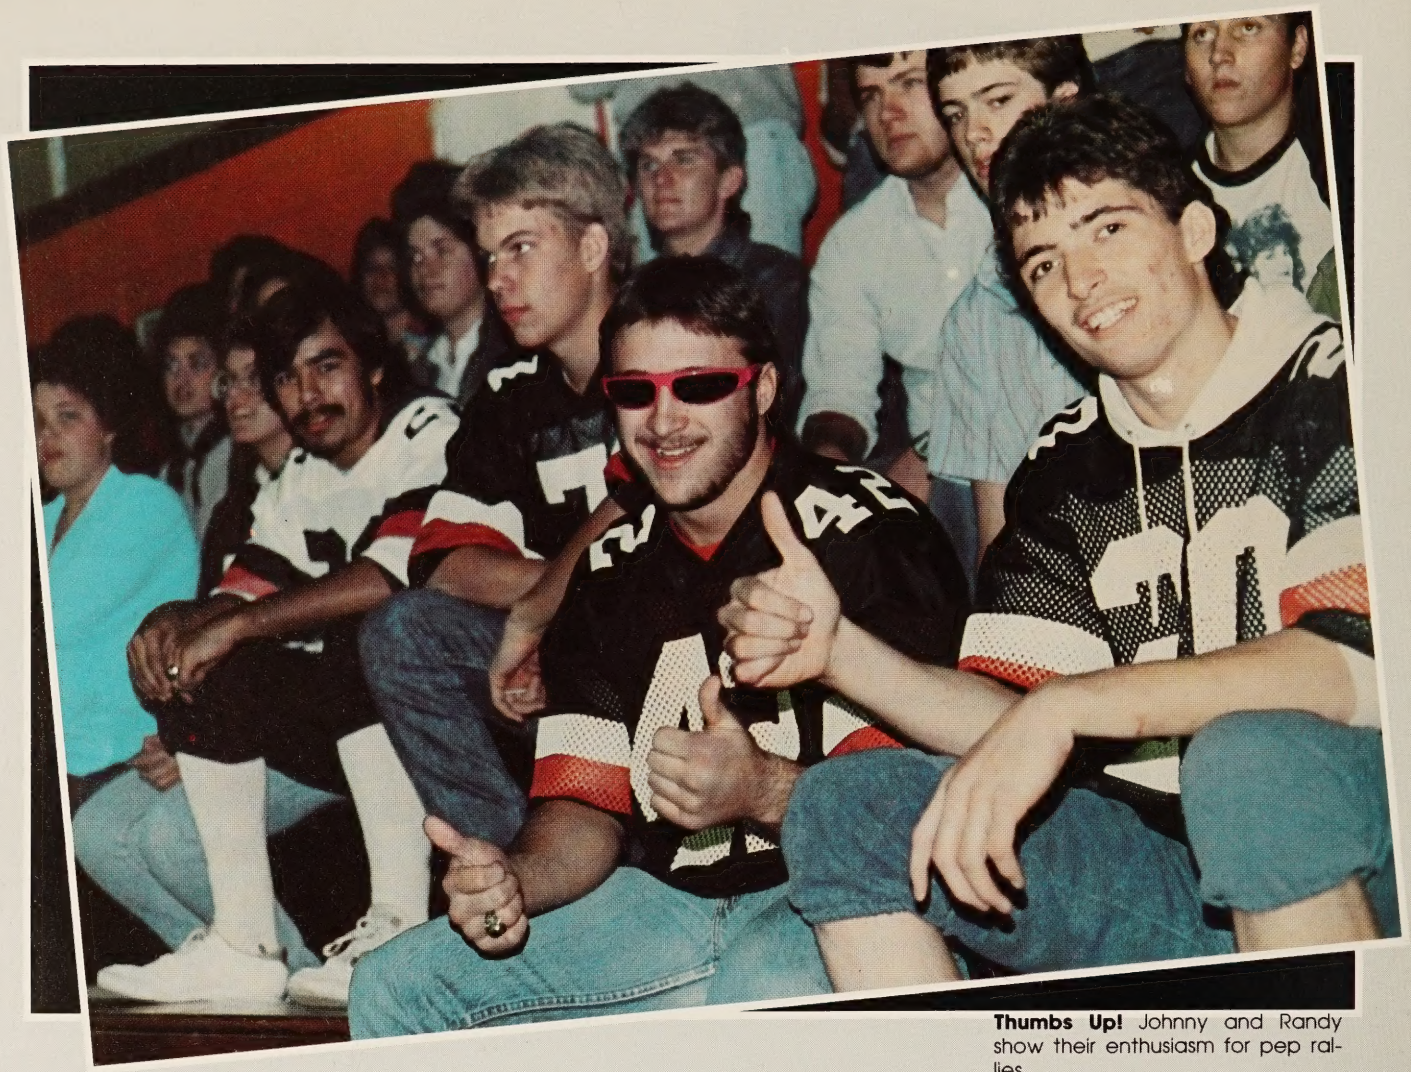
Work Progresses. Workmen take advantage of the unseasonably warm weather in November to progress even further on the new addition to the high school, which is to be finished by January 1987.



Thumbs Up! Johnny and Randy show their enthusiasm for pep rallies.

Percussion line up. Jessica, Glenda, and Kerry seem anxious to perform with the band during a pep rally routine.

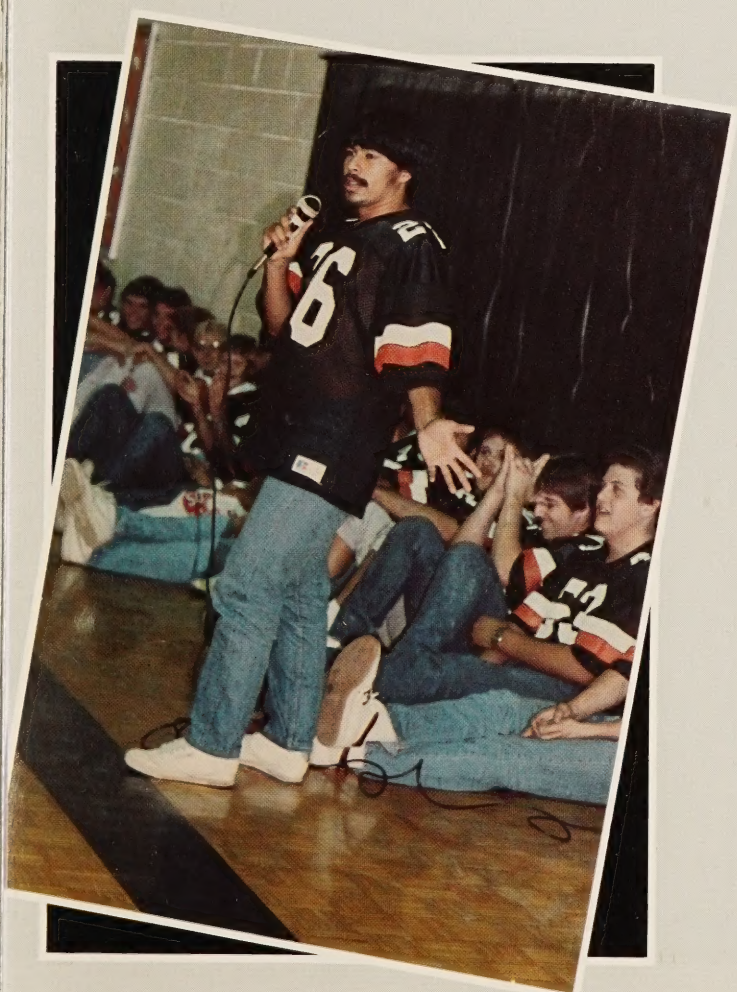
One, Two, Three Kick. Sonya, Robin, and Julia practice to be future Rockettes.

PEP RALLIES

Senior Cluster. Senior players are recognized in the last pep rally of the season.

Listen. Chico says, "When we score big, nobody comes to the game.

Gee. Look everyone we're all in rhythm.



Boom Boom. The band struts their stuff.

FBLA sponsor. Mrs. Meade watches the progress being made on the FBLA float.

Your're a sweetheart. Steven Compton and Sonya Fletcher ride on the Beta float as Junior Varsity Sweethearts.

HOMECOMING AND PREPARATIONS

Homecoming week is an exciting time for the students here at H.H.S. With school starting in September, little time was allowed for the preparations concerning Homecoming. Homecoming week was filled with various activities. The SCA worked hard to provide a variety of activities for each day of the week. Friday, September 27, was the opening to an exciting weekend. For the first time in many years, students were allowed to work and decorate club floats during school time, under the supervision of club sponsors. Given this priviledge the students responded by being very active and cooperative. Floats were brought onto the driving range and most of the day Friday was spent decorating. Although the weatherman kept predicting rain, Friday proved to be a partly sunny and warm day.

That evening at 5:30, Honaker was full of anxious people to view the parade. There was a judging of the floats before the parade. The Junior Class won Most Spirited, SCA won Queen Award, and the FBLA won Most Unusual Award. Hundreds of devoted fans filled the Fuller Field Stadium to watch the mighty Tigers. At the beginning of the game the Honaker Tiger Band put on an excellent performance. Also, Shelia McFarlane crowned Linda Miller Homecoming Queen. Saturday night the cafeteria was full of life as the Homecoming Dance took place from 7:00-11:00 p.m. This Homecoming will be remembered by all as a success.

Are they straight? Juanita Price struggles to place the letters for the float on straight.

Door decorations. Mrs. Hughes' class shows their talent by making a poster for the door decoration contest.

Can you do this? Mrs. Johnson shows Todd Yates how to fold the napkins for the floats.

HOMECOMING 1985

On September 27, 1985, Linda Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, was crowned Homecoming Queen. She was escorted by Jon Humphries, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Callhan. Linda was one of the four girls nominated for Homecoming Queen by the Senior class.

1984 Homecoming Queen Shelia McFarlane relinquishes her title as Mr. David Musick crowns Linda.

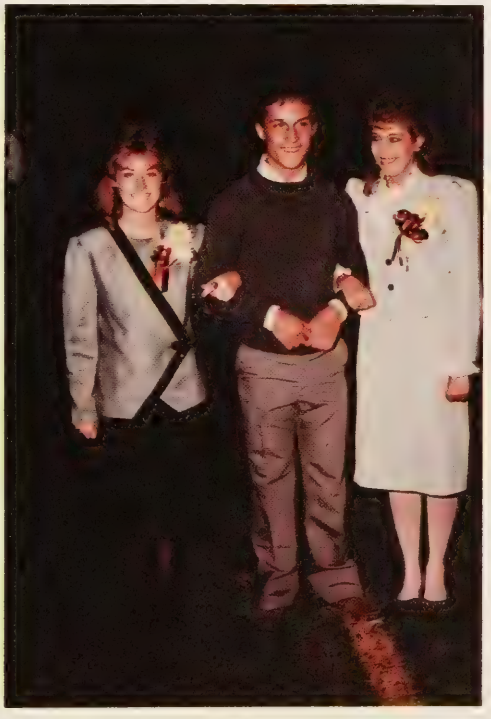
Terri Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hart, represented the senior class as an attendant. She was escorted by Chris Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Taylor.

Leslie Dotson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Dotson, was selected as one of the Homecoming Attendants for the Junior class. She was escorted by Randy Vernon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Vernon.

Becky Honaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Honaker, was nominated as one of the four Senior Homecoming Attendants. She was escorted by Curt Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Cook.

Tammy Kiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kiser was selected as the other Homecoming Attendant for the Junior Class. She was escorted by Jeff Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Miller.

DOING IT WITH STYLE



Jennifer Simerly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Simerly, was the sophomore representative for Homecoming Attendant. She was escorted by Jeff Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller.

Becki Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, was chosen by the freshman class as Homecoming Attendant. She was escorted by Rod Slate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Slate.

Sonya Fletcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fletcher, and Steve Compton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Compton, were chosen as Junior Varsity Sweethearts.

Ava Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hart, represented the eighth grade class as Homecoming Attendant. She was escorted by Keith Compton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Compton.

Vickie Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Vance, was chosen Maid of Honor for the 1985 Homecoming Court. She was escorted by Larry McGlothin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Memphis McGlothin.

Sonya Beringer and Pam Cox were chosen 1985 Varsity Football Sweethearts. They were escorted by Randy Sizemore who was chosen Sweetheart by the Varsity Girls Basketball team.

This is how it's done. Mary Musick concentrates on painting a negative and positive picture in art class. Catching up. Kim Miller takes time to work on a report. A familiar sight. One never see's Jeri Hess without a book. Here she is using her extra time in study hall to catch up on the pleasure reading.

Caught. Charlie Price and Mike Whited are discovered in the hall going to their lockers during sixth period. Naptime. Dean Miller uses his study hall to catch up on his sleep. Say cheese, please. Kim Honaker smiles as she takes time from class to glance out the window at the photographer.

USE OF TIME

Gossip time. Susan Honaker and William White use their study hall time to discuss their weekend. Smile! Karen Hale takes a break from her computer to give the photographer a big smile.

Taking a break. Daniel Hurt uses study hall time to relax, and to read a letter. Another busy day. Kathy Helton takes time out from art class to count the Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae money.

USE OF TIME . . .

Time in School — 6 hrs.
Instruction Time — 2 to 4 hrs.
Engaged Time — 1½ to 3½ hrs.
Success Time — ½ to 1½ hrs.

At the high school level, the most frequent off-task behaviors were socializing (6.0%), daydreaming (4.9%), and waiting for class to end (5.3%), or to begin (5.0%). Over 21% of class time was devoted to these four off-task behaviors.

Boys spent more time waiting for class to begin, having their pictures taken, and misbehaving. Girls spent more time socializing.

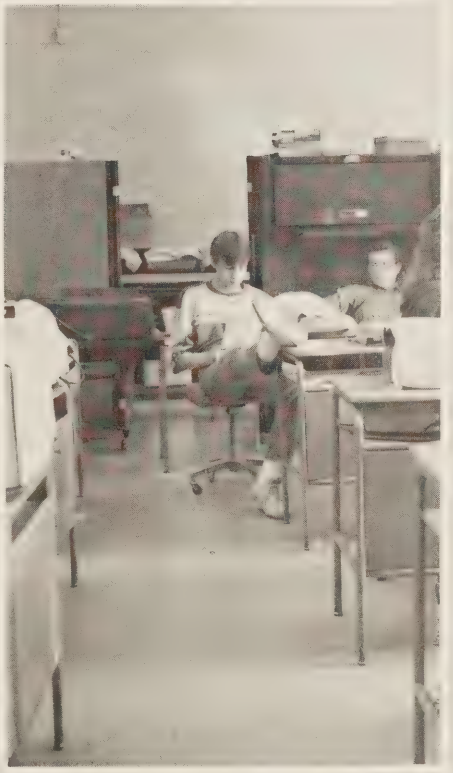
No one has enough time, yet everyone has all there is. It is the one resource which is distributed equally to all. Use it wisely!



ORANGE YOU A WINNER?

Seniors win spirit stick. William Price, Senior class Vice-President, displays the overall enthusiasm that the Senior class exhibited during the Tigers final football Pep Rally. Bottom left — David Dye, Tiger Quarterback, relaxes on game day. Bottom center — Chad Jessee returns to school after recuperating from a motorcycle accident. Bottom right — Todd Yates silences the crowd with his solo in "God Bless the U.S.A."

Best friends. Best friends are an important part of many students' lives. Leisa Short and Karen Hale have been friends since eighth grade. Below — Coach Bolling prepares himself for girls basketball practice.

ORANGE YOU BEST FRIENDS?

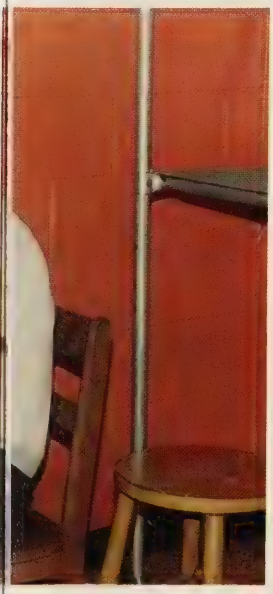
ORANGE YOU READY YET?

ORANGE YOU THE QUARTERBACK?

ORANGE YOU INJURED?

ORANGE YOU A SOLOIST?

ORANGE YOU A TIGER PAL?



Decorating lockers. Kim Sullivan was just one of the many participants in the Parents' Club "Secret Tiger Pal". Football cheerleaders, members of the band and other volunteers decorated lockers and sent treats to varsity football players without revealing who they were. Participants were recognized at the athletic banquet.

ORANGE YOU EMBARRASSED?

ORANGE YOU GRIZZLY ADAMS?

ORANGE YOU . . . ?

Whether
awake or alert or dreamy and drowsy, every student has one thing in common:
we all spend almost six hours a day
IN CLASS

Taking their time. Brad Hart, Jeff Bise, and Jeff Hess take their time to get their calligraphy right for Art I. Everyone's friend. Kim Hart always has a smile for everyone. This is how it's done. Karen Taylor busy typing articles into the computer for the Hourglass. Mad scientists? No, Darrell Dye and Russell Street, two Shop I students, inspect a welded joint. A quiet place. Lisa Street takes advantage of some free time to study.

SADIE HAWKINS WEEK

Each year the Art Club sponsors a Sadie Hawkins Dance in order to raise money for additional art materials. This year the club decided to sponsor a funfilled week ending with the traditional Friday night dance. Each day students were asked to participate in dress-ups or fun activities. The week included a backwards day, purple and shades day, security day, sweat suit day and Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae dress-up day. Six couples representing various grade levels, were nominated the previous week and voting took place all week long. At a penny a vote, the student body seemed to enjoy not only the voting process but the daily tallies. At the dance, Leslie Dotson and Brad Hart were announced as the winners of the Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae contest.

Up on those toes. Mona Dye stretches to hang the first streamers for the dance.

This is the hardest part. Robert Honaker takes his time crossing the twisted streamers across the wires.

Best Dress-Up. Deanna Harris wins the Daisy Mae dress-up contest.

The winning couple. Winning smiles are displayed on the faces of Brad Hart and Leslie Dotson who won the Li'l Abner and Daisy Mae Couple Contest.

Hi cutie!!!

They call me Skid, but you can call me Stud!

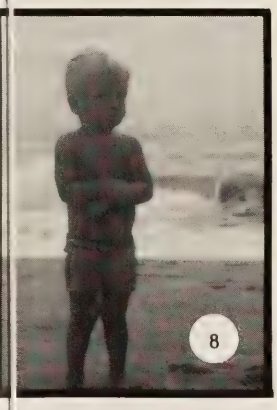
Mom, is that Kenny . . . on time?!

ace you better leave me alone.

But Mom he hugged Shell again!

All 3 of my dates are out there!

Mom, wasn't one Jerem enough.



Where's all the girls?

They call me Dougie!!

And you thought I was shy!

Do you think I might be on WCYB tonight?

You're hurting my arms!

Of course I'm taking my horse swimming.

Scott Compton, eat your heart out.

Oh, don't touch me.

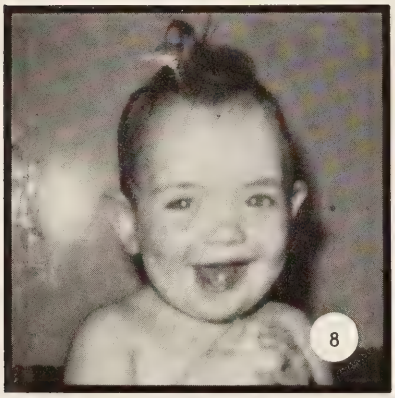
Mom my feet are cold.

Happy Birthday to me!!

Hello, is Chris there?

Round em' up!



I bet you'd like to have what I've got.

Help, It's gonna bite me.

Cheese!

Mom I think I wet my pants.

I'm starting my tan early.

Oh gross!!!!!!

Gosh guys I'm down to 1.

You ain't so bad

Barbara, go away.

I wish for . . .

Ah, Mom you can do it.

Is it time to eat yet?

I'm not taking a nap!

The cheese is what makes it taste so good.

My pretty little chick-a-dee.

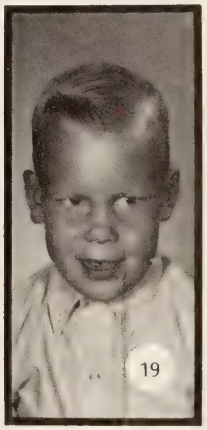
I'm tired and wanna go home.

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall . . .

Am I pretty or what?

I want my mommy.

Boy is she nice looking.



Dad, I'll manage the farm.

You can play if you want to.

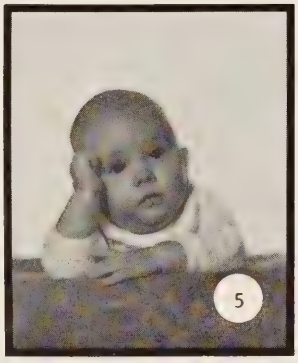
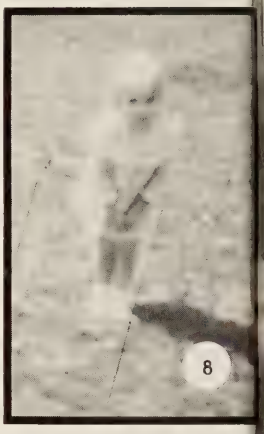
Stick em' up.



Bor-ing!!!!!!!

Hi-ho Silver.

I can imitate a monkey.



But I've gotta go!

Dad I didn't do it.

I didn't mean to hit him.

Move over Walter Chronkite.

You don't think little ole me did it.

Get me out of here!!!

Silly rabbit, tricks are for kids.

You can't play with my toys.

Hey good lookin, what ya got cookin . . .

Senior Trip

O.K., what's going on in here?

Seniors stand around before loading to come home.

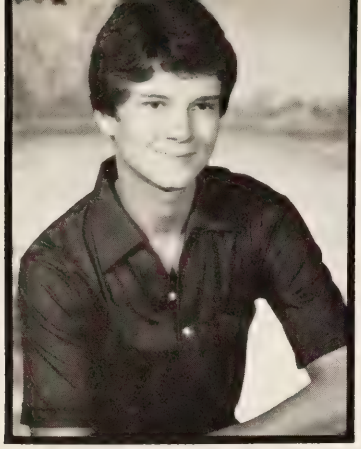
Kim seems to really enjoy her company.

Of course we're having fun.

Hey, where's all the guys?

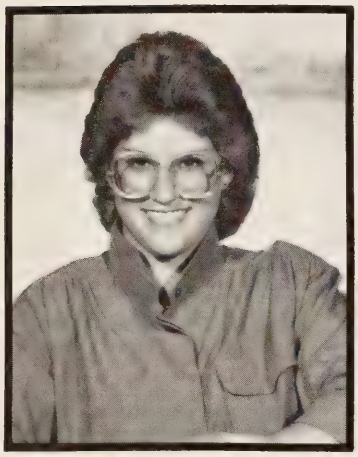
Are we alone yet?

TOP TEN



TODD YATES (4.0) — Undecided on a major, I plan to attend Emory and Henry in the fall.

LISA PERKINS (3.92) — I plan to go to Southwest Virginia Community College this fall. I then plan to transfer to Clinch Valley College and major in mathematics and minor in Business Administration.

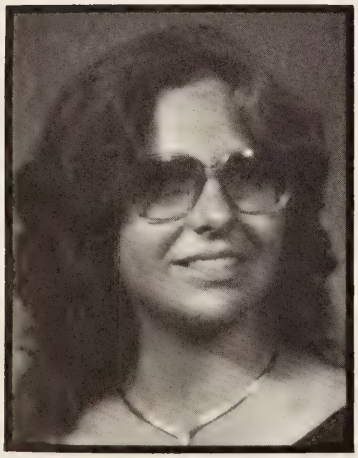


MARESSA FLETCHER (3.91) — I plan to attend SVCC and major in Accounting. Someday, I hope to be a successful accountant, and have a peaceful and happy life.

TERRI HART (3.80) — I plan to use the skills that I have obtained in high school to become a secretary. If I could have anything I wanted in life, it would be peace and happiness.

TERRY HART (3.65) — This fall I am going to attend SVCC. I then plan to transfer to CVC to major in education, then return to my community to start a career.

DONNA JEWELL (3.61) — Work over the summer in a nursing home in Ohio. Go to SVCC for two years in their nursing program, and work in a hospital somewhere. In about ten years, go to Europe.



DIANA SISK (3.57) — I plan to attend SVCC for two years and major in computer courses. Then, I may either transfer or go into a field concerning computers and possibly entertainment.

CAL SLATE (3.54) — I plan to attend Emory and Henry College. I am interested in a medical profession and will be majoring in pre-med at Emory. Then I will pursue further education at a med-school after graduation.

LEISA SHORTT (3.50) — After graduating from high school, I plan to attend Southwest and then transfer to the University of Virginia. I hope to pursue a career which will entail a world of travel.

DOUG PERKINS (3.48) — I plan to attend SVCC. Then transfer to Virginia Tech, all the while majoring in computer science.

1986 GRADUATION

A 1 AND A 2 Mr. Ted Pobst, band director, prepares to lead the band during the graduation ceremony.
BICENTENNIAL SPEECH Salutatorian Lisa Perkins delivers a bicentennial-inspired speech to a hugh audience.
LAST WORD Valedictorian Todd Yates has a last minute word with David Musick, principal; as William Price wonders if the rest of the class has started without them.
LET US PRAY H.G. Musick, Jr., assistant superintendent, reads a Bible verse to the senior class.
PRESENT TIME Maressa Fletcher, senior class president, presents the sponsors Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Smith with a gift certificate.
DIPLOMAS, DIPLOMAS Rodd Keene and Rachael Bostic work to straighten the banner in front of the table holding the senior diplomas.

THE DAY 'BURP'

Speech and Drama. The Day 'Burp' Played the Horses was the last production performed by the 1986 Speech and Drama Class. The play centered around Zinkfester's Super-Mart and BURP, a computer that would speed up the grocery checkout process. BURP would also serve as a computer dating service for the students that worked at the Super-Mart. Julie Propst's character Mrs. Cantrell shops at the store. Mr. Zinkfester (Tim Griffith) and Ms. Saperville (Jennifer newberry) wheel Ms. Rankinback (Leisa Short) out after she faints. Buffie McClain adds the finishing touches to Juanita Price's make-up.

PLAYED THE HORSES

Speech and Drama. Mr. Zinkfester, Ms. Saperville, and Josh Wilson (Cal Slate) pose for a picture before the play begins. Mrs. Miller assumes Karen Street's role who was unable to attend due to illness. This year's class consists of: Juanita Price, Buffie McClain, Shelia Horne, Randy Perkins, Jeri Hess, Mrs. Miller, Julie Propst, Kim Sullivan, Randy Sizmore, Linda Miller, Chris Miller, William Price, Tim Griffith, Todd Yates, Mark Hale, Sonya Beringer, Cal Slate, Jennifer Newberry, Leisa Short, Michelle Honaker, Karen Street.

This Could Be The Night
Junior - Senior Prom
May 3, 1986

Prom royalty. Mr. Musick crowns queen Tammy Ray as king Mark Boyd looks on.

Following tradition. The king and queen and prince and princess prepare to lead the next dance.

I could have danced all night. Pam McGlothlin enjoys a break as Charlie Owens holds her shoes.

Frustrated. Couple wait in a seemingly endless line for pictures to be taken.

Havin fun? Mrs. Deskins, Mrs. Price, and Mrs. Williams seem to enjoy chaperoning the prom.

And our princess is . . . Mr. Steffey crowns princess Leslie Dotson who was escorted by prince Brad Hart.

Excitement Builds. Couples anxiously await the announcement of the prom king and queen.

A GIRL SCOUT LIFE, "It's helped me develop a positive attitude toward myself and others," said Teah Webb about her involvement with Girl Scouts.

Teah has been a member or involved in Girl Scouts since first grade. This summer she went to camp Sky Wa Mo in Bluff City, TN. The first two weeks Teah took training as a C.I.T. (Counselor In Training). Next three weeks she was hired as a regular counselor.

One of the most exciting things about Girl Scouts for Teah was going to camp Sky Wa Mo and meeting a lot of new friends. Teah has gone to camp for five years. She went to South Holston Lake for two weekends, and went back packing on the Appalachian Trail. Teah said, "I enjoy working with the girls in swimming, archery, and canoeing, and the most favorite time was weekends because I got weekends off."

Junior Activities

1985-86 Proved to be a very successful school year for the class of '87. They took many hours of hard work and turned them into a lot of good times.

Without any question, the juniors were spirited in '86. During pep rallies throughout the year, they won several spirit sticks, including the Homecoming Spirit Stick. The juniors were the only class to enter a float in the Homecoming Parade with their float winning the most spirited award.

Juniors worked extremely hard to prepare for a memorable prom. Many hours were spent selling magazines, records, and candy to earn the money. Juniors also sponsored dances to earn money for the prom.

Although the junior class worked hard to accomplish their goals; as upcoming seniors they hope to achieve even more.

A Glamorous Life. It's not everyday that a sophomore girl gets the opportunity to start a modeling career. Kim Musick is a 16 year old 5 foot 10 inch Honaker High student. Kim started modeling in the eighth grade for Rasnic Models in Kingsport. As long as Kim can remember, she wanted to pursue modeling and a career in fashion design. Kim doesn't see modeling as her only career goal. After graduation, she plans to attend Virginia Intermont College and major in fashion merchandising. Last summer she spent a whirlwind week in New York City filled with photoshoots, makeovers, and sightseeing. Kim also attended a modeling convention in Birmingham, Alabama, where she won several awards. Some of her interests include sports, particularly basketball, and cheerleading. Modeling is a great way for teens to learn the responsibility of a career, of course, modeling isn't as easy as it looks; it's a lot of hard work and discipline. Kim can describe modeling in three simple words, "I love it."

Giddy Up Sherri Kiser has been riding horses for four years. She became interested when her family bought two horses in 1980. Sherri rides Dusty, in competitions such as country pleasure and trail racking. In 1983 Sherri and Dusty placed third in the Country Pleasure Division, in the Appalachian Horse Show Association. She also placed first in the Trail Pleasure Division in the Mountain Empire Racking Horse Association.

Striving ahead. Scott Hill, Scott Cox, and Lee O'Connor are three outstanding freshman football players. During the 1985 football season they played both J.V. and Varsity football.

Each day they went to J.V. practice from 3:30 until 5:30 or 6:00 and then they went to Varsity practice until about 7:00.

Although, they only played in 3 or 4 varsity games they gained experience over the other J.V. players that should help them in the 1986 season. They also proved that they had what it took to wear both J.V. and Varsity jerseys.

Did You Say S.A.T.? During the '85-'86 school year five freshmen; Jeff Miller, Rod Slate, Lee O'Conner, Scott Cox, and Jamie Hale began taking the S.A.T. The S.A.T. is the Scholastic Aptitude Test which many colleges require you to take before they will accept your application.

They feel that an early start will help them in the future. By taking it now they will not be as shocked as some of their classmates who will wait until their Jr. or Senior year to take the S.A.T. By taking the S.A.T. now it enables them to improve their scores, because they will have 3 more years to repeat the test, and each time their scores should improve.

Dedication is all it takes. Vonda Van Dyke has attended church all her life and has been very involved in different church activities. She has been singing solo at the Swords Creek "Block" Church since she was 8 years old. She is the song leader for the smaller children and helps to organize activities for the youth group. In the summer Vonda attends Vocation Bible School and goes to camp meetings in Virginia and Kentucky. Vonda loves church and she is very dedicated to her work there.

EX·TEM·PO·RA·NE·OUS ... a division of forensic competition in which a participant has 30 minutes preparation time before delivering a 3 to 5 minute answer to a current events question. John Paul Hess has successfully competed in this forensic category for the past two years. During his eighth grade year, he competed on the district level, and as a freshman he advanced to the regional competition. John plans to continue participating in forensics while in high school. By his senior year, he should be a state winner.

TIGER CHAMPS. Honaker's 12 year old All-Star Standouts Ripper McGlothlin, Anthony McFarlane, Mike Bostic, Mike Osborne, Steve McNulty, Anthony Miller, and Kevin Baldwin led the Tigers to a 3rd place rank in the state of Virginia. The boys had a shut-out game 16-0 against Wise for the District title. Here Kevin Balwin pitched a no-hitter, Ripper had a three-run homer and Steve had a double. Catcher, Mike Bostic had a triple and threw three people out. They then traveled to Fairfax, VA where they battled it out with Churchill the Tigers coming through 2-1 in an eight inning game. Here Ripper went 3 and 4. Mike Osborne threw 5 people out with Steve having the game winning run.

VARSITY FOOTBALL CHEERLEADERS

J.V. FOOTBALL CHEERLEADERS

Being part of the team. The 1985-86 Varsity Cheerleading squad consist of Captain Sonya Beringer, Melanie Lothery, Michelle Cabell, Renae Byrd, Tammy Reynolds, Kay Hart, and Robin Beringer. The Junior Varsity squad consists of Krystal Lowe, Sonya Fletcher, Karen Smith, Crystal Reedy, and Christy Newberry. Sonya promotes spirit at the last Tiger football pep rally.

Not another touchdown. Kay Hart can find nothing to cheer about as the opposing team scores another touchdown. Varsity cheerleaders involve the crowd. Lori Newberry, Tammy Reynolds, Kay Hart, Renae Byrd, and Michelle Cabell pose for the photographer present at the Homecoming game. 1985 was a rebuilding year for the football cheerleaders. For the first time in a number of years the Junior Varsity team had seven loyal supporters. Along with the addition of the Junior Varsity cheerleading squad there was also a new sponsor. Mrs. Sue Williams, a third year teacher at Honaker High School, sponsored the girls this year. They started preparing early in the year with practice over the summer, then with the arrival of new uniforms the cheerleaders looked forward to an exciting season.

The 1985 J.V. Football team was composed of a group of fine young men. The offense was led by Jeff and Mike Miller at quarterback. Scott Cox and Juan Sawyers led the team in yardage and touchdowns due to a hardworking offensive line with Chris Bostic, William Lockhart, Brian White, Tony Woodward, and John Hagerman. Defense was led by Jamie Hale, Terry Perkins, Lee O'Connor, Jeff Harding, and Junior Jones.

To have a winning football team you must have dedicated and hardworking players. Each member of this team had both qualities, and it was a privelege to work with these young men.

Robin Bostic, Vicki Dye, Jeanine Blakenship, Bridget McGlothlin, Jennifer Johnson, Lotta Crabtree, Kim Musick, Coach Bolling, Jennifer Newberry, Tracy Harte, Janeane Ray.

This was Coach Bolling's first year of coaching the girls. He had a very young team which consisted of two seniors, one junior, three sophomores, and four freshmen. The girls gained the skills and potential needed to play basketball. Even though they had an unsuccessful season, the girls worked and progressed as a TEAM. Coach Bolling said this was a good experience for him. Bolling also stated, "I never knew how much the girls could do until I took them over in August." This year has been the biggest turn out of fans the girls have had in a long time. "Winning is not everything; it's how you play the game." The Lady Tigers never gave up and bounced back with great pride and desire to win the next game. These girls are the true WINNERS!

Parent's night is a very special night for the Lady Tigers. Coaches, parents, ball players, score and book keepers, and the managers were given carnations as they entered the gym. At the beginning of the varsity game, the parents escorted their daughters out to the center of the court. The two seniors were given carnations which were presented by Coach Bolling. The seniors were Jennifer Newberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newberry, and Tracy Harte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Harte. Robin Bostic, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bostic, will return next year as a senior. The remaining girls and their parents are as follows: Lotta Crabtree, daughter of Don and Linda Crabtree, Kim Musick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Musick, Jeanine Blankenship, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Blankenship, Jennifer Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arvel Johnson, Vicki Dye, daughter of Sammy and Shirley Dye, Janeane Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Junior Ray, and Bridgett McGlothlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos McGlothlin. After the game, the girls and coaches went to Gary's Pizza Place to eat. A big thanks goes out to the parents for all their support and help.

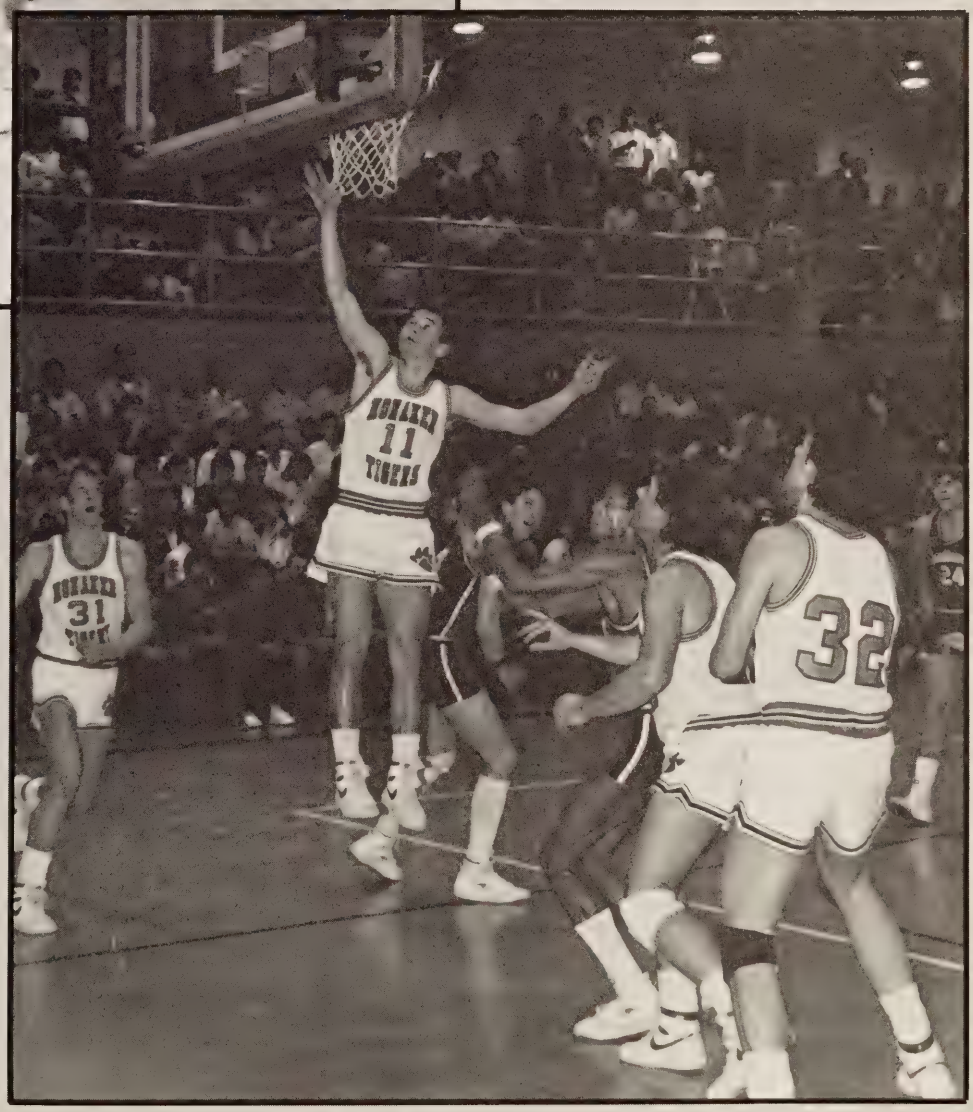
TO THE DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP

WINNERS AT LAST. Tiger Fans and players celebrate after defeating Castlewood (66-48) which made them District Tri-Champions.



DISTRICT CHAMPIONS

The 1985-86 "Tiger" basketball team can be summed up in two words. Those two words are "District Champions". The team, led by Seniors: Scott Compton, Randy Dye, Chris Miller, Randy Sizemore, Cal Slate, and Juniors: Brad Hart, Bryon Helton and Jeff Miller, fashioned a 15-8 overall record and a 9-4 district record which included a 9-1 home court advantage. The highlights of the season featured an 8-0 run at the end of the regular season with big district wins over Rich Valley (by 20), Rural Retreat (by 35), and Castlewood (by 18) to give the Tigers the Hogoheegee District Championship. A special playoff game win over Chilhowie vaulted the Tigers into its first Region C Tournament appearance and its sixth Regional Tournament appearance in Honaker High School history. Congratulations, Jam On Crew, for a job well done.

This year as a whole has proven to be a very successful season. At the beginning of the year we started out on the wrong foot. But, as the end of the season grew closer we began to work and progress as a team, which was shown when we won the last six out of eight games. The boys worked hard and were truly dedicated till the season was over. The boys always held their heads high, win or lose, which makes me very proud. The next day at practice, they were only more determined to be a better ball team. That type of attitude is needed in any sport, so that makes them winners.

COACH'S COMMENTS

The 1986 Lady Tigers softball season was a successful one with a trip to the Group A State Finals. The girls are a very young team, and they all worked to their fullest capacity throughout the season. The team compiled an impressive 10-3 record with wins over Council and Castlewood.

The Lady Tigers also defeated Glenvar for the Region C title, and went on to defeat Council for the Group A State Semi-finals.

Seniors, Linda Miller, Karen Taylor, and Vicki Vance led a group of young girls featuring five freshmen, five sophomores, and four juniors.

I am very proud of the girls and enjoyed coaching each one of them. They all hold great talent and we will hear from them again next year.

The beat goes on. In early August of 1985, the 56 member H.H.S. Band began practice for the upcoming marching season. Under the direction of Mr. Ted Pobst, and Chris Clark, drum major, the band began twelve weeks of hard work starting with 8th grade band week.

The first full week of August, the eighth graders began practice on marching skills, and playing their instruments while marching. Two weeks later, the rest of the band joined the eighth graders for band week. From 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. the band worked each day on their new music and drills.

On August 30, four days before the first day of school, the band traveled to Haysi, Virginia for the first football game, where they performed two songs and one drill at halftime.

As each week passed the band worked harder and harder on their field show. On September 28 the band traveled to Chilhowie, Virginia to participate in the Chilhowie Apple Festival. The band received a division III award.

Officers: Todd Yates, Stephen Gurley, Janet Templin, Kim Hawkes, Kimberly Sullivan

The division III inspired the band to work harder and develop their field show even more. Three weeks later, on October 19, the band traveled to Independence, Virginia and performed in the Mountain Foliage festival. The three weeks of hard work paid off and the band improved their rating to a high division II award.

The 1985 Marching season, although not as successful as some of the past seasons, proved to be an "Improving Season". The band played at the football games and gave an added spirit to the crowd. They performed three songs with drills, "Wayfaring Stranger", "God Bless the USA", and "Shadowland", plus a solo percussion break, during halftime at each football game. In 1985 the band proved that hard work and strong dedication is all it takes to make the beat go on!

EDITORS
SONYA BERINGER
JENNIFER NEWBERRY

We have enjoyed working on the 1985-86 Torch. Hours of diligent work, time and dedication have been put into this yearbook by all staff members, and we feel this yearbook is a total success. This year we took a different approach by developing a theme and co-ordinating all activities around it.

We would like to thank all staff members for the time and effort they spent working on this yearbook, and also the faculty for their patience, understanding and cooperation.

We feel that the precious moments that we captured in this yearbook reflect your good times as well as ours.

A special thanks goes to Ms. Hammel for believing in us and for her understanding. When we had an idea, she took time to listen, give an honest opinion, or offered to apply her ideas to help us improve the memories compiled within these pages. Thanks again!
